

Here is what mums say:

.....The Baby Café is a friendly place where I can take my twins to and let them play and socialise with other babies and breastfeed in a relaxed and friendly environment. ...I got practical and supportive advice from experts which was difficult to get from somewhere else. I'm very grateful for such a service because it helped me to still breastfeed Thomas and Emilie who are almost 10 months old and happy babies

Micky Star Baby Café

I first went to the Baby Café when my son was 3 weeks old and I was struggling to breastfeed (having one flat and one inverted nipple!!) I am delighted to say that with their support and companionship I am still breastfeeding my son who is about to celebrate his first birthday next week. I am sure that I would have given up breastfeeding a long time ago had it not been for this group.....

Leasowe Baby Café

I have recommended this excellent service to many new mums....

If I had not attended the Baby Café I would have stopped breastfeeding at 8 weeks. Attending was one of the best things I ever did. (still breastfeeding at 10 months)

My baby is now 6 weeks old and still breastfeeding. If I had stopped coming I think I would have given up.

Baby Café was a godsend for me. I would not have been able to continue without their assistance.

Calderdale Baby Café

Built up my confidence about breastfeeding in public. I found the Baby Café really supportive, both emotionally and with regards feeding my baby. Breastfeeding is much harder than you expect in those first few weeks.

Breastfeeding is such a wonderful rewarding experience and ought to have such support for those tricky first few weeks....you really made an extremely daunting experience so much more bearable. Thank you.

"Thank you so much for your quite remarkable help when I was struggling to feed my third child. The bus is a quite extraordinary oasis of calm, patience and superb advice - not to mention tea, cake and pillows. I really didn't think I was going to be able to feed successfully this time and it couldn't now be going better. With very many thanks."

I wish I'd found it sooner...
